

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Circus Gatti is proud to partner with Children's Miracle Network/Hendrick Health Systems

Orange County, CA, February 23, 2010 - Live entertainment producer, MJG Entertainment, Inc., is proud to partner with Children's Miracle Network in Abilene, Texas. Circus Gatti, with its all-new 2010 tour of Shazoom, will be performing at the Expo Center of Taylor County on February 26th and 27th.

Shazoom is a return to the origins of circus that combine the traditional circus-acrobatics performances and the art of clowning. The show highlights the physical demands of extraordinary human performances in its splendor and fragility. Proudly presented in three rings of colorful display and grounded in the roots of the American circus.

This exciting event will help benefit Children's Miracle Network/Hendrick Health Systems, by donating a minimum of 5% of all gross ticket sales. Circus Gatti will also donate tickets to all the Miracle Kids and their families. Miracle families will have the opportunity to "meet and greet" with the Circus Gatti performers after the show.

On Friday the 26th at 9:30 am, "Laughing Leo" the furriest funnyman, will make a special appearance at Hendrick Children's Hospital.

For almost 50 years Circus Gatti has been entertaining children and giving back to local communities. Founded by the late Major Matthew J. Gatti who never forgot the struggles he had growing up as an orphan. Major Gatti's vision lives on by partnering with Children's Miracle Network.

Children's Miracle Network is a non-profit organization that raises funds for more than 170 children's hospitals. Countless individuals, organizations and media partners unite with Children's Miracle Network hospitals to help sick and injured kids in local communities. Donations to Children's Miracle Network create miracles by funding medical care, research and education that saves and improves the lives of 17 million children each year.
